TO HOOP SKIRT MAKERS.—THE ATTENTION OF ALL of all in this line is called to Chapman's patent Hoop Skirt Clasp, in tin and silver, patented Oct 18 1839.—This clasp has a narrow back, of much less with than the wire, strengthened by a rib running through its length. Thus, while the tape is effectually held, it is not cut by constant wear, as is the case with skirts made by the clasp with teeth, or with holes in the back, as well as those resching to or lapping over the edge of the wire. Samples will be sent, without charge, to all who desire it. Also a new Bustle Clasp.
